- (2) where the Company repurchases shares at a premium to its par value, payment equivalent to the par value may be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the repurchase of shares. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 1. if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company;
 2. if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the repurchase of shares, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate of premiums on the issue of the old shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the amount in the premium account (or capital common reserve fund) (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchases;
- (3) the Company shall make the following payments out of the Company's distributable profits:
 1. the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
 2. the variation of any contract for the repurchase of its own shares;
 3. the release of its obligation under any contract for the repurchase of shares.
- (4) after the total par value of the cancelled shares is deducted from the Company's registered capital in accordance with relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits and used to pay the par value portion of the repurchased shares shall be included in the premium account (or capital common reserve fund account) of the Company.

Chapter 5 Transfer of Share

Article 33 The Company does not accept the share of the Company as object of pledge.

Article 34 Shares of the Company may be transferred, transferred as gift, inherited and mortgaged pursuant to relevant laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association.

Transfer or transmission of shares of the Company can be registered with the share registrar designated by the Company and transfer formalities shall be handled in accordance with relevant regulations. Subject to all applicable laws and regulations (including the Securities and Futures Ordinance and the Securities and Futures (Uncertificated Securities Market) Rules (Chapter 571AS) made under the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (hereinafter referred to as the “USM Rules”)), the transfer of shares may be effected through an uncertificated securities registration and transfer system (in respect of the Company’s H Shares or securities, meaning a system (together with certain programmes and other facilities) operated by computer and having the following functions: to enable the ownership of H Shares and securities to be evidenced and transferred without instruments; and to facilitate supplementary and incidental matters), the Central Clearing and Settlement System operated by Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “CCASS”), or any other system approved by the designated stock exchange or securities regulatory commission in paperless form.

Article 35 Shares of the Company held by the promoters shall not be transferred within one (1) year after the incorporation of the Company. Shares issued by the Company before public offering shall not be transferred within one (1) year after the shares of the Company are listed on the stock exchange.

Directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers shall report to the Company about their shareholdings and changes thereof and shall not transfer more than twenty-five per cent (25%) of their shares per annum during their terms of office; the shares they hold in the Company shall not be transferred within one (1) year after the shares of the Company are listed. The aforesaid persons shall not transfer the Company’s shares they held or newly purchased within half a year after they terminate service with the Company.

Article 36 Where directors, senior managerial officers and shareholders holding five per cent (5%) or more of the total share capital of the Company sell their shares or other securities of an equity nature within six (6) months after their purchases or purchase within six (6) months after selling their shares, the yield thereupon shall be possessed by the Company and the board of directors shall withdraw all their yield. Where a securities company, as underwriter, purchases all the unsold shares and therefore exceeds five per cent (5%) or more of the total share capital of the Company, it is exempt from the six (6) months’ time restriction when it sells the shares, and other circumstances stipulated by the CSRC shall be exempted.

The above-mentioned shares or other equity securities held by directors, senior management, or natural person shareholders include shares or other equity securities held by their spouse, parents, children and through other people’s accounts.

Where the board of directors fails to enforce the paragraph 1, shareholders have the right to ask the board of directors to enforce it within thirty (30) days. Where the board of directors fails to enforce it within the aforesaid time limit, shareholders shall in their own names be entitled to file a suit to the People’s Court in the interests of the Company.

Where the board of directors fails to enforce the paragraph 1, the responsible directors shall bear joint liability according to the law.

Chapter 6 Financial Assistance for the Acquisition of the Shares of the Company

Article 37 No financial assistance shall be provided by the Company and its subsidiaries (including associated entities of the Company) to any person acquiring or intending to acquire the shares of the Company by way of a gift, advance, guarantee, compensation, loans or otherwise. The person acquiring the shares of the Company aforesaid shall include the person who undertakes, directly or indirectly, obligations for the purpose of purchase of shares of the Company.

No financial assistance shall be provided at any time and in any manner by the Company and its subsidiaries to reduce or release the obligations of the said person undertaking such obligations.

This article shall not apply to the situations as mentioned in article 39 of this chapter.

Article 38 Financial assistance as stated in this chapter includes (but not limited to):

- (1) gift and advance payment;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default), release or waiver of the rights;
- (3) provision of a loan or any other contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of any party to the contract, a change in the parties of the loan or contract, and the assignment of rights under such loan or contract; or
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

Assumption of obligations as stated in this chapter includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or by way of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not, and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the obligor or jointly with other persons) entered by the obligor or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 39 The following acts are not regarded as prohibited by article 37:

- (1) the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company and the principal purpose for giving that assistance is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the assistance is but an incidental part of a larger proposal of the Company;
- (2) a distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividend in accordance with laws;
- (3) the allotment of shares as dividends;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares and adjustment of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (5) the lending of money by the Company in the ordinary course of its business where the lending of money is within the scope of its business, provided that the Company's net assets are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company;
- (6) contribution made by the Company to the employee share option schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits of the Company).

Chapter 7 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 40 Share certificate is issued by the Company as evidence of the shares held by the shareholder. The share certificate of the Company shall be in registered form.

The share certificates of the Company shall include the following main particulars:

- (1) company name;
- (2) date of registration and incorporation of the Company;
- (3) class of share, par value and the quantity of shares representing;
- (4) share certificate number;
- (5) other matters that shall be required to be specified by the Company Law, Special Regulations, and securities stock exchange of the listed shares of the Company.

Article 41 Share certificates shall be signed by the legal representative. If requested by the securities stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed to be signed by other senior managerial officers of the Company, share certificates shall also be signed by other relevant senior managerial officers. Signatures of the legal representative or other relevant senior managerial officers of the Company on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

The share certificates shall become valid only after being affixed with the common seal of the Company or being affixed with the common seal of the Company in printed form. Affixing with the common seal of the Company on the share certificates shall be subject to the authorisation by the board of directors. Scriptless issues and dealings of the Company's shares shall be subject to other requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 42 The Company shall create a register of shareholders for Domestic Shares according to the proofs provided by domestic share registrar. The Company shall establish a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

- (1) the name (title) and address (residence), the occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and the quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up or payable on the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the share certificate number of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder registers as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which each shareholder ceases to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholder's shareholding in the Company. Shareholders shall enjoy such rights and undertake such liabilities in accordance with the class of shares they hold. Shareholders of the same class of shares shall enjoy the same rights and undertake the same liabilities.

Article 43 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares in foreign countries and appoint an overseas agent to manage such register. The original register of shareholders for H Shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong, which shall be available for shareholders' and designated equity (as defined in the USM Rules) holders' inspection.

A duplicate of the register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 44 The Company shall maintain a complete set of register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the following parts:

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence, other than those registers of shareholders which are described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this article;
- (2) the register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares of the Company which is maintained at the place of stock exchange of overseas listed securities;
- (3) the register of shareholders which is maintained at such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purpose of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 45 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

Changes or amendments of different parts of the register of shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the laws at the place of maintenance of different parts of the register of shareholders.

Article 46 All the fully paid-up H Shares can be freely transferred (subject to the situations permitted by Hong Kong Stock Exchange) without the restriction of any lien. However, the board of directors may refuse to recognise any instrument of transfer (if applicable) without giving any reason unless such transfer is carried out in compliance with the following conditions:

- (1) transfer document and other document (if applicable) relating to or affecting ownership of any shares must be registered and a registration fee must be paid to the Company as per the standard specified in the Listing Rules;
- (2) transfer documents are related to H Shares only;
- (3) stamp duty as required by laws in Hong Kong has been paid for the transfer document;
- (4) for shares in paper form, relevant share certificates and evidence that the transferor has the right to transfer such shares as reasonably required by the board of directors shall be provided;
- (5) if the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall not exceed four (4);
- (6) the Company has no lien over the relevant shares.

Every person whose name is entered as an H Shareholder in the Register shall be entitled to hold their shares in uncertificated form through the uncertificated securities registration and transfer system, the Central Clearing and Settlement System, or any other system approved under the Securities and Futures Ordinance and the USM Rules (as applicable) in compliance with the Listing Rules and other relevant regulations. If shares are held in paper form, any holder of H Shares may transfer all or part of his shares of the Company via the common written transfer document of Hong Kong or via a transfer document signed by hand or in printed form. The standard transfer form specified by Hong Kong Stock Exchange may be used for the aforesaid share transfer. The transfer document shall be signed by the transferor and transferee either by hand or in printed form.

All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company, the address of share registrar or other place designated by the board of directors from time to time.

The Company shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations to facilitate the holding, transfer, and registration of its H Shares in uncertificated form, including electronic processes for corporate actions, as required by the uncertificated securities market regime.

Article 47 If the laws, regulations, normative documents, securities regulatory authorities and exchanges in the place where the shares of the Company are listed have requirements during the period of suspending the registration of share transfer, such requirements shall be followed.

- Article 48 In the event that the Company convenes a general meeting, distributes dividends, enters into liquidation or carries out other activities necessary for the ascertainment of shareholding, the board of directors or the convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall decide the equity registration date. Shareholders whose names appear on the register at the close of trading on the equity registration date shall be the shareholders enjoying relevant rights and interests.
- Article 49 Any person who disputes the register of shareholders and requests to have his name (title) registered thereon, or requests to have his name (title) removed therefrom may apply to the court having jurisdiction to rectify the register of shareholders.
- Article 50 If any shareholder whose name has been registered in the register of shareholders or any person who requests to have his name (title) entered into the register of shareholders has lost his share certificates ("Original Certificates"), he may apply to the Company for the issue of replacement certificates in respect of such shares ("Relevant Shares").
- In respect of the loss of share certificates by holders of Domestic Shares, the replacement share certificates shall be applied in accordance with relevant requirement under the Company Law.
- In respect of the loss of certificates by holders of overseas listed foreign shares, application for replacement shall be made in accordance with the laws, rules of the relevant recognised stock exchange or other relevant provisions of the place where the original register of shareholders for overseas listed foreign shares is kept.
- For applications for replacement of lost share certificates relating to holders of H Shares, the replacement of such certificates shall be subject to the following requirements:
- (1) Applicants shall submit an application in standard form designated by the Company together with a notarial certificate or statutory declaration. The notarial certificate or statutory declaration shall include the reason for the application made by the applicant, the circumstances under which the share certificates were lost with supporting evidence and a declaration that no other persons may request to be registered as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares.
 - (2) The Company shall not have received any declaration from any person other than the applicant requesting registration as the shareholder of such shares prior to the decision of the Company to issue a replacement share certificate.
 - (3) If the Company decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, an announcement of the issue of a replacement share certificate shall be published in the newspapers designated by the board of directors and in compliance with the requirements of the Listing Rules, or in form of announcement as allowed by the Listing Rules; the period for such announcement shall be ninety (90) days and such announcement shall be published at least once every thirty (30) days during such period.
 - (4) Prior to publishing the announcement of the issue of a replacement certificate, the Company shall prepare and submit a copy of such announcement to be published on Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The announcement can be published immediately upon the reply from Hong Kong Stock Exchange confirming that such announcement has been published on Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The period for the exhibition of such announcement at Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be ninety (90) days.

If the consent to the application for a replacement certificate has not been obtained from the registered shareholder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall send to such shareholder by post a copy of such announcement to be published.

- (5) Upon the expiry of the 90-day period for the publication and exhibition of the said announcement as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this article and no objection being received by the Company from any person to the replacement of such certificate, a replacement share certificates shall be issued pursuant to the applicant's application.
- (6) In issuing a replacement share certificate pursuant to this article, the Company shall immediately cancel the Original Certificates and such cancellation and replacement shall be registered in the register of shareholders.
- (7) All costs incurred by the Company in connection with the cancellation of the Original Certificates and issuing replacement share certificates shall be borne by the applicant. Unless the applicant provides reasonable security on such costs, the Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action.

Article 51 Upon the issuance by the Company of a replacement share certificate pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Association, the name (title) of a bona fide purchaser who acquired the new share certificate aforesaid or a shareholder who is subsequently registered as the owner of such shares (if a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 52 The Company shall assume no liability for any loss sustained by any person as a result of the cancellation of the Original Certificates or issuance of replacement share certificates, unless it can be proved that the Company has taken fraudulent acts.

Chapter 8 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 53 A shareholder of the Company is a holder of share of the Company in accordance with laws and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders.

A shareholder shall have rights and shall undertake the obligations in accordance with the class and the number of shares held by him; the shareholders of the same class of shares shall have the same rights and shall undertake the same obligations.

Each class of shareholders of the Company enjoys the same rights over dividends or any distribution in other forms.

When more than two (2) persons are registered as joint shareholders of any shares of the Company, they shall be deemed as joint holders of the relevant shares but subject to following conditions:

- (1) the Company shall not register more than four (4) persons as joint shareholders of the Company.
- (2) where there are joint shareholders, if one of the joint shareholders passes away, the other remaining persons who are joint shareholders shall be deemed to be the persons who hold the relevant shares, but the board of directors has the right to require his death certificate for the purpose of revising the register of shareholders. For the joint shareholders of any shares, only the joint shareholder ranked first on the register of shareholders has the right to receive relevant share certificates, notifications from the Company, to attend general meetings and to vote. Any notification delivered to such person shall be deem as delivered to all joint shareholders of the relevant shares.

Article 54

The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held by him;
- (2) to file a petition according to laws, convene, hold and attend or appoint a proxy to attend general meetings and to vote thereat;
- (3) to supervise business management of the Company and to raise suggestions or inquiries;
- (4) to transfer, bestow or pledge the shares held by him in accordance with the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (5) to obtain relevant information according to the provisions of the Articles of Association, including:
 1. to receive a copy of the Articles of Association upon payment of the cost thereof;
 2. to inspect and copy upon payment of reasonable charges:
 - (1) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (2) the following personal information of the directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers:
 - (a) present and former name and alias;
 - (b) principal address (residential);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (e) identification documents and their numbers;
 - (3) the state of the Company's share capital;
 - (4) a report showing the total nominal value, number, and highest and lowest prices of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last accounting year, and the aggregate expenses paid by the Company for the purpose;
 - (5) minutes of general meetings;
 - (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of surplus assets of the Company according to the number of shares held by him;
 - (7) to inquire the Articles of Association, registers of shareholders, stubs of company bonds, the minutes of shareholders' meetings, resolutions of the board meetings and the financial accounting reports;
 - (8) with respect to shareholders who vote against any resolution adopted at the general meeting on the merger or demerger of the Company, the right to demand the Company to acquire the shares held by them;
 - (9) other rights conferred by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall not exercise any right to freeze or otherwise damage the rights attached to any shares directly or indirectly held by any person only on the ground that the said person has not disclosed his equity to the Company.

Article 55

Where the shareholder requires to review the aforesaid relevant information or asks for the relevant documents, he shall provide the Company with documentary proof in relation to the class of shares and the shareholdings he held, the Company will provide the same after the identity of the shareholder has been verified.

Article 56

Where the resolutions of the general meetings or board meetings violate the laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders are entitled to petition to the People's Court to announce the verdict of its nullity (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Where the procedures of convening and means of voting of the general meetings or the board meetings violate the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, the shareholders are entitled to petition to the People's Court to revoke the resolution within sixty (60) days as of the date of its making (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Article 57

Where the directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers other than the members of the Audit Committee violate the laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of this Articles of Association in time of fulfilling their duties and thereby have caused damage to the Company, the shareholders with one per cent (1%) of shares singly or jointly for no less than one hundred and eighty (180) days are entitled to require audit committee in written application to file a suit to the People's Court; where the violation of law by audit committee members in time of performing their duty causes damage to the Company, the shareholders are entitled to require the board of directors in written application to file a suit to the People's Court (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Where the audit committee and board of directors refuse to file suit after having received the written application as described in the aforesaid paragraph, or fail to do so within thirty (30) days as of its acknowledgement, or the delayed sue may cause irreparable loss to the Company, the shareholders as prescribed in the aforesaid paragraph are entitled to file a suit directly to the People's Court in their own names (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Where the infringement of the lawful rights of the Company has caused damage to the Company, the shareholders as prescribed in paragraph 1 of this article are entitled to file a suit to the People's Court pursuant to aforesaid 2 paragraphs (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Where the violation of laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of this Articles of Association by the directors, general managers, deputy managers and other senior managerial officers has caused damage to the shareholders, the latter may file a suit to the People's Court (for holders of foreign shares, refer to article 249 of the Articles of Association).

Article 58

The Company's ordinary shareholders shall undertake the following obligations:

- (1) to comply with the Articles of Association, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) not to divest the shares other than as provided by laws or administrative regulations;
- (4) not to abuse their shareholders' right to prejudice the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independence of the Company as a legal person and the limited liabilities of shareholders to prejudice the interests of creditors of the Company;

Shareholders of the Company who abuse their rights as shareholders and cause losses to the Company or other shareholders shall be liable to compensation under the laws.

Shareholders of the Company who abuse the independence of the Company as a legal person and the limited liabilities of shareholders to evade repayment of debts and cause material damage to the interests of its creditors shall be jointly and severally held liable to the Company's debts.

- (5) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Except for the terms agreed by the share subscriber at the time of share subscription, a shareholder shall not be liable for any subsequent increase of capital.

Article 59 A shareholder holding more than five per cent (5%) of the voting shares of the Company pledges his shares, he shall submit a report in written form to the Company upon the occurrence.

Article 60 The controlling shareholders or the de facto controllers shall not use their correlative relationship to damage the interests of the Company. In the event that the requirement under this Article is breached and a loss to the Company is resulted, such persons shall be liable to compensate for the loss.

The controlling shareholders and the de facto controllers of the Company shall owe fiduciary duty to the Company and other shareholders of the Company. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights in strict compliance with the laws and shall not damage the interests of the Company and other public shareholders by means of profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, misappropriation of capital, loan guarantee, and so on, and shall not damage the interests of the Company and other public shareholders by means of their controlling positions.

Save for the obligations as required under the laws, administrative regulations or listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, controlling shareholders shall not make decisions harmful to the benefits of all or some of the shareholders when exercising their power as shareholders, and by exercising their voting rights on the following matters:

- (1) to exempt the directors from their responsibilities to take bona fide actions in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to approve the directors to expropriate the Company's assets for their own or other persons' benefits, including (but not limited to) any opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (3) to approve the directors (for their own or other persons' benefits) to deprive other shareholders of their personal interests, including (but not limited to) any distribution right or voting right, but excluding any company reorganisation submitted and passed by the general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 61 A controlling shareholder referred to in the preceding article means any person who satisfies one of the following conditions:

- (1) the person individually or when acting in concert with others is entitled to elect more than half (1/2) of the directors;
- (2) the person individually or when acting in concert with others is entitled to exercise over thirty per cent (30%) (inclusive) of the voting rights or may control the exercise of thirty per cent (30%) (inclusive) of the voting rights of the Company;
- (3) the person individually or when acting in concert with others holds over thirty per cent (30%) (inclusive) of the Company's shares in issue;
- (4) the person individually or when acting in concert with others, has de facto control over the Company by other means; or
- (5) any other person defined to be a controlling shareholder under the Company Law and Listing Rules.

"Acting in concert" in this article refers to the action in which two (2) or more persons arriving at a consensus by way of agreement (whether orally or in writing), to obtain the voting rights in the Company through any one of them, for the purpose of achieving or consolidating the control over the Company.

- Article 62 Where a shareholder holding shares carrying five per cent (5%) or more of the total voting rights in the Company provides guarantee for himself or others with the Company's shares, a report in writing shall be made to the Company on the date of the occurrence of such fact.

Chapter 9 General Meetings

- Article 63 The general meeting is the body conferring authority on the Company, which exercises the following powers in accordance with laws:
- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
 - (2) to elect or replace of directors not appointed by employee representatives, and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
 - (3) to consider and approve reports of the board of directors;
 - (4) to consider and approve the Company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
 - (5) to consider and approve the Company's proposals for profit distribution and recovery of losses;
 - (6) to resolve on the increase or reduction in the Company's registered capital;
 - (7) to resolve on issues such as material external investment, merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
 - (8) to resolve on the issue of bonds of the Company;
 - (9) to resolve on the appointment, removal or cessation of appointment of the Company's accountants firm;
 - (10) to amend the Articles of Association of the Company;
 - (11) to consider motions of shareholders representing one per cent (1%) (inclusive) or more of the voting shares in the Company;
 - (12) to consider and approve particulars of external guarantee prescribed in article 64;
 - (13) to consider and approve material purchase or sale of assets of the Company within 1 year with value over thirty per cent (30%) of the total assets;
 - (14) to consider and approve change in use of proceeds;
 - (15) to consider and approve share incentive scheme and employee shareholding plan;
 - (16) to resolve on any other matters at general meetings as required under the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association.

Proceedings which, in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, are required to be approved by the general meetings must only be considered at such meetings so as to protect the decision-making power of the shareholders of the Company on such proceedings. Under necessary and reasonable circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the board of directors to decide, as permitted by laws, regulations and the Articles of Association and within the scope of authorization granted by the general meeting, specific issues relating to proceedings which cannot be decided at the general meeting.

Unless otherwise under special emergency circumstances, the Company shall not, without the approval of the shareholders' general meetings, enter into any contract with any person other than directors, manager and other senior management members for authorization of management of all or substantial part of business of the Company to such persons.

- Article 64 Following particulars of external guarantee issued by the Company require consideration and approval by the general meeting:
- (1) value of a single guarantee exceeds ten per cent (10%) of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
 - (2) guarantee provided to the guarantee objective whose asset liability ratio exceeds seventy per cent (70%);
 - (3) any guarantee after the value of total external guarantee of the Company and its

- controlling subsidiaries that exceeds fifty per cent (50%) of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
- (4) any guarantee after the value of total external guarantee of the Company that exceeds thirty per cent (30%) of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
 - (5) any guarantee provided by the Company in excess of thirty per cent (30%) of its latest audited total assets within one year;
 - (6) guarantee provided to shareholders, the de facto controller and their respective related party;
 - (7) other guarantees prescribed by laws, regulations, listing rules of relevant stock exchange or the Articles of Association which require approval by shareholders meeting.

For provision of guarantee to a related person by the Company, in addition to the deliberation and approval by more than half (1/2) of all non-related directors, it is also subject to the deliberation and approval by more than two-thirds (2/3) of the non-related directors present at the board meeting, and shall be submitted to the general meeting for deliberation. Where the Company provides guarantees to its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and their related persons, the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and their related persons shall provide counter-guarantee.

Those who fail to provide a guarantee in accordance with the prescribed procedures or within their scope of licenses shall be held accountable in accordance with the Company's relevant rules and bear corresponding legal liabilities.

Article 65 The Company shall not, without prior approval of shareholders in general meeting, enter into any contract with any person other than a director, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior managerial officer whereby the management of the whole or any substantial part of the business of the Company is to be handed over to such person.

Article 66 General meetings shall be divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. The general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings are held once every year within six (6) months after the last financial year end.

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months following the date of such circumstances:

- (1) when the number of directors falls below the number required by the Company Law or two-thirds (2/3) of the number (i.e. 8 persons) required by the Articles of Association;
- (2) when the losses of the Company which have not been made up amount to one-third (1/3) of the total share capital of the Company;
- (3) upon written requisition of shareholders holding ten per cent (10%) (inclusive) or more of the issued shares carrying voting rights (excluding treasury shares) for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) when the board of directors deems necessary or the audit committee proposes to convene the same;
- (5) other circumstances as required under the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

The number of shares as referred in (3) above is calculated based on the shares being held by the relevant shareholders at the time when they give a written requisition.

If the Company fails to convene the general meeting within the above period, it shall report to the authority appointed by CSRC in the location of the Company and the stock exchange where its shares are listed, and shall give the reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof.

The general meeting shall set up a venue and be held in the form of an on-site meeting.

The Company will also provide online voting to facilitate shareholders' participation in general meetings, leverage technology to convene general meetings virtually, allowing shareholders to vote electronically. Shareholders who participate in the general meeting of shareholders through the above methods shall be deemed to have attended, and shall be entitled to speak and vote.

Article 67 Independent directors have the right to propose to the board of directors the convention of extraordinary general meetings. With regard to the proposal, the board of directors shall, in accordance with the provisions in laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, make feedback in written form concerning approval or disapproval of convention of extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days as of its acknowledgement.

Where the board of directors approves the convention of the extraordinary general meeting, a notice shall be issued thereof within five (5) days after the board resolution been passed; where the board of directors disapproves the convention of extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall give the reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof.

Article 68 Audit committee is entitled to propose the convention of the extraordinary general meeting to the board of directors in written form. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the provisions in laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, make feedback in written form concerning approval or disapproval of convention of extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days as of its acknowledgement.

Where the board of directors approves the convention of the extraordinary general meeting, a notice shall be issued thereof within five (5) days after the decision has been made by the board resolution been passed and the alteration of the original proposal in the notice shall have the approval of audit committee.

Where the board of directors disapproves the convention of extraordinary general meeting or fails to make feedback within ten (10) days as of its acknowledgement, it shall be deemed incapable or refused to fulfill the obligation of the convention of extraordinary general meeting. Audit committee may thereby convene and preside over the meeting.

Article 69 Where the shareholders ask for the convention of extraordinary general meeting or class meeting, shall be handled in accordance to the following procedures:

Shareholders singly or jointly hold more than ten per cent (10%) of the shares of the Company have the right to propose in written form the convention of extraordinary general meeting to the board of directors. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the provision in laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, make feedback in written form concerning the approval or disapproval of convention of extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days as of its acknowledgement.

Where the board of directors approves the convention of extraordinary general meeting, a notice shall be issued thereof within five (5) days after the board resolution be passed and the alteration of the original proposal in the notice shall have the approval of the concerned shareholders.

Where the board of directors disapproves the convention of extraordinary general meeting or fails to issue the feedback within ten (10) days after receive request, the shareholders singly or jointly holding more than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's share is entitled to propose in written form the convention of extraordinary general meeting to audit committee.

Where audit committee approves the convention of extraordinary general meeting, a notice shall be issued thereof within five (5) days and the alteration of the original proposal in the notice shall have the approval of the concerned shareholders.

Where audit committee fails to issue the notice within the prescribed time limit, it shall be deemed refused to convene and preside over the general meeting and the shareholders singly or jointly holding more than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's share for more than ninety (90) consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting themselves.

Where the general meeting is convened by shareholders themselves due to the aforesaid failure of the board of directors and audit committee, the reasonable cost incurred for the meeting shall be borne by the Company and be deducted from the amount payable to the directors responsible for the neglect of duty.

Article 70 Where audit committee or shareholders decide to convene the general meeting themselves, they shall notify the board of directors in written form and make filing with the stock exchange.

Where the general meeting is convened and presided by shareholders themselves, prior to the announcement of the member resolutions, shareholding of the shareholders convening the meeting shall not be less than ten per cent (10%).

Where the general meeting is convened and presided by the audit committee or shareholders themselves, the audit committee or the shareholders convening the meeting shall, at the time of issue the notice of general meeting and announcement of shareholders resolutions, submit relevant documentary proof to the stock exchange.

Article 71 With respect to the general meeting convened by audit committee or shareholders themselves, the board of directors and board secretary shall give coordination. The board of directors shall provide the register of members of the stock registration date.

Article 72 Where the general meeting is convened independently by audit committee or shareholders themselves, the necessary cost incurred by the meeting shall be borne by the Company.

Article 73 To convene an annual general meeting of the Company, the Company shall issue a written notice 21 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting; in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, the Company shall issue a written notice 15 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting. When the Company convenes a meeting of class shareholders, the period of notice and the notification method shall be as specified in article 131 of the Articles of Association.

In calculating the notice period, the date of issue of notice and date of meeting shall be excluded.

Article 74 Where convening the general meeting, the board of directors, audit committee and shareholders singly or jointly holding more than one per cent (1%) of the Company's share are entitled to raise proposal to the Company. The Company shall include such items of the proposal that are within the scope of duty of the general meeting to the meeting agenda. Motions in the general meeting shall fulfill the following conditions:

- (1) the contents are not in contradiction with the requirements under the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and within the Company's operation scope and the scope of powers of the general meeting;
- (2) with specific subject and actual matters to be resolved;
- (3) submitted or delivered to the board of directors in writing.

Shareholders singly or jointly holding more than one per cent (1%) of the Company's share may, ten (10) days prior to the convention of the general meeting, raise interim proposal and submit it to the convener in written form. The convener shall, within two (2) days after its acknowledgement, issue a supplemental notice of the general meeting and announce the content of the interim proposal.

Save as prescribed in the previous paragraphs, the convener shall not, after having issued notice hereof, revise the proposals set out in the notice of general meeting or add new proposals.

Where the proposals are failed to be set out or not comply with the prescribed paragraph of this Articles of Association, the general meeting shall not vote and make resolution.

Article 75 An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on matters which are not specified in the notice.

Article 76 A notice of general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) stock registration date of the shareholder having the right to attend the general meeting;
- (3) specify the venue, date and time of the meeting;
- (4) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (5) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on issues to be discussed; including (but not limited to) where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, repurchase shares of the Company, reorganise the share capital, or restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed contract, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (6) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests of any director, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior managerial officer in the matters to be discussed and the effect of the matters to be discussed on such director, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior managerial officer in his capacity as shareholder in so far as it is different from the effect on the interests of other shareholders of the same class;
- (7) contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (8) contain a clear statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (9) specify the time and place for lodging the proxy form for the relevant meeting;
- (10) name and phone number of the permanent contact person for conference affairs;
- (11) where the general meeting adopts means of internet, it shall, in the notice, set out expressly the voting time and procedures of internet means.

The notice and supplementary notice of the general meeting shall fully and completely disclose all the details of the proposals. In the event that independent directors are required to express their opinions on the matters to be discussed, a notice of shareholders' general meeting or a supplementary notice shall, when given, also disclose the opinions and reasons of the independent directors.

The time gap between the stock registration date and the date of meeting shall be no more than seven (7) working days. Once the stock registration date is fixed, it shall not be altered.

The convener shall inform each shareholder of the annual general meeting not less than 21 days before the meeting, and shall inform each shareholder of the extraordinary general meeting not less than 15 days before the meeting. In determining the commencement date and the period, the Company shall not include the date on which the meeting is held.

The written reply from shareholders who intend to attend general meetings shall include the following contents:

- (1) the time of receipt of written notice of general meeting;
- (2) the content of the written notice of general meeting is complete and clear;
- (3) whether oneself will attend in person; if not, whether a proxy is appointed to attend; and
- (4) the name and telephone number of oneself or his proxy.

Article 77 Notice of general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting), by electronic communication such as email, personal delivery or prepaid airmail or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association to the addressee as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of Domestic Shares, notice of the meetings may also be issued by way of public announcement.

The announcements referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or several approved newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council. All holders of Domestic Shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notices of general meetings once such announcements have been published; Notices of general meetings to Shareholders of H Share shall be published through Hong Kong Stock Exchange's website or in one or several newspapers designated by it. All the holders of H Share shall be deemed to have received the relevant notices of general meetings once such announcements have been published.

Article 78 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate that meeting or any resolutions passed thereat.

Article 79 Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his proxies to attend and vote as directed by the shareholder, and a proxy so appointed shall:

- (1) have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the meeting;
- (2) have the right to vote on a poll (unless a particular shareholder is required under the Listing Rules to abstain from voting on a particular matter).

Article 80 The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the shareholder, and shall be signed by the appointor or a chop shall be affixed. For a legal person shareholder, the instrument must be affixed with the common seal.

Where the legal representative attends the meeting, he shall present the identification card, valid certificate to show his legal representative status; where the proxy is entrusted to attend the meeting, the proxy shall present his identification card, the proxy form lawfully issued by the legal representative in written form.

Article 86 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting at which the proxy is appointed to vote or 24 hours before the time appointed for voting at the registered address of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify. If the instrument appointing a proxy has been signed by a person authorised by the appointor, the power of attorney or other instruments of authorisation shall be notarised. The power of attorney or other instruments of authorisation so notarised together with the proxy form shall be deposited at the registered address of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify.

In the event that the appointor is a legal person, such shareholder shall be represented at the shareholders' meeting of the Company by its legal representative or the person authorised by the board of directors or other governing body of such appointor.

In the event that a shareholder of the Company is a recognised clearing house (as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), it may appoint a proxy (or proxies) it considers appropriate to attend any general meeting or class meeting of the Company. If more than one (1) proxy is appointed, the proxy form to appoint such proxy (or proxies) shall set out the number and class of shares such proxy (or proxies) is (are) authorised for. The person (or persons) so authorised is (are) entitled to exercise the right of and on behalf of the clearing house (or its nominee) as if such shareholder is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 87 The instrument delivered to a shareholder by the board of directors of the Company for appointing a proxy shall be in such form so as to enable the shareholder to instruct freely at his choice the proxy to vote in favour of or against and to give instruction on each item of the business put to vote at the meeting. Such instrument of proxy shall specify that in default of instruction from the shareholder, the proxy may vote in such a way as he thinks fit.

Article 88 Notwithstanding the death or incapacity of the appointor, or the revocation of the appointment or revocation of the authority under which the appointing instrument is signed, or the relevant shares have been transferred, a vote given by such proxy pursuant to the instrument of appointment shall still be valid provided that no notice in writing in respect of the events mentioned above has been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 89 The Company shall be responsible for the preparation of the register of attendant of the meeting. The attendant register shall bear the names of the participants (or names of the entities), identity card numbers, addresses of domicile, numbers of shares with voting rights held or represented, names of the appointors (or names of the entities) and so on.

Article 90 The convener and the lawyer employed by the Company, shall, in accordance with the register of members provided by the securities registration and clearing institutions, jointly verify the legality of the qualification of the shareholder, and registered full name (or name) of the shareholder and their shareholdings carrying voting rights. Prior to the announcement by the convener of the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of shares carrying voting rights held by them, the registration shall be ceased.

- (4) sign confirmation opinion in written form for the Company's regular reports to ensure the sincerity, preciseness and integrity of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (5) provide genuinely the relevant information and materials to the audit committee, and not impede the audit committee or members of audit committee to exercise their functions and powers;
- (6) other assiduous obligations prescribed in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 138

Where the director fails to attend meetings for two (2) consecutive times and fails to consign other director hereto, he shall be deemed incapable to perform his duty and the board of directors shall propose to the general meeting to replace the director.

Article 139 The director may, prior to expiration of his term, submit his resignation report in written form to the board of directors. The board of directors shall disclose the relevant information within two (2) days.

Where the total number of the board of directors is less than the minimum quorum, the original director shall, prior to the assumption of the elected director for replacement, perform his directorship in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Except the circumstances prescribed in the preceding paragraphs, the resignation of the director shall come into effect as of its acknowledgement of his resignation report by the board of directors.

Article 140 Where the resignation of the director comes into force or his term of office expires, the director shall properly complete all transfer procedures with the board of directors. His faithful obligations borne to the Company and shareholders shall not be discharged upon his term of office expires. His confidential obligations in relation to the Company's information borne to the Company shall still be effective until such confidential information become public information. Time limit of other faithful obligations shall be determined in accordance with principle of fairness and depend on the period in between the occurrence of the event and the leave of post as well as the reason and condition of the termination of relations with the Company.

Article 141 Without the lawful authorization of the Articles of Association or the board of directors, any director shall not represent the Company or the board of directors to act in the name of individual. Where the director acts in his own name, the director shall declare his standpoint and identity in advance when the director is deemed by the third party reasonably as acting on behalf of the Company or the board of directors.

Article 142 Where the director, on the occasion of performing his duty hereof, violates laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or provisions of the Articles of Association and has caused damages to the Company, the director shall be liable for compensation.

Article 143 The independent directors shall act in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the relevant provisions of CSRC and stock exchanges.

Article 144 The Company shall establish the board of directors.

The board of directors shall have eleven (11) directors, one of whom shall be employee director. The board of directors shall have one (1) chairman and two (2) vice chairman. There are four (4) independent directors, who should account for one-third (1/3) or more of the total number of the board of directors. There is one (1) employee director, who shall be elected by staff of the Company democratically at staff representatives' meeting, staff's meeting or other forms, and without submission to the general meeting for discussion and approval.

The board of directors of the Company shall establish the audit committee, nomination committee, remuneration committee and relevant special committee like strategic committee when necessary. The audit committee shall perform the functions and powers of the supervisory committee as stipulated in the Company Law. The special committees shall be responsible to the board of directors, and perform their duties in accordance with these Articles and the authorization of the board of directors, and their proposals shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration and decision. All members of the special committees shall be three (3) directors, among which, the majority of the members of the audit committee, the nomination committee and the remuneration committee shall be independent directors who also convene the meeting of such committees. The convener of the audit committee shall be an accounting professional in accordance with the rules of stock exchanges. Members and convener of the special committees are elected by the board of directors. The board of directors is responsible for formulating working rules to standardize the operation of the special committees.

The audit committee shall be principally responsible for: (1) providing recommendations to the board of directors regarding the appointment and removal of the auditor; (2) approving the auditor's remuneration and terms of engagement; (3) reviewing financial information; (4) overseeing the financial reporting system and internal control procedures; and (5) performing such other duties as are prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, and the Articles of Association.

The principal duties of the nomination committee shall include: (1) reviewing and making recommendations to the board of directors on the selection criteria and procedures for directors, the general manager and other senior management members; (2) identifying qualified candidates for directors, the general manager and other senior management members; (3) reviewing and making recommendations on candidates for directors, the general manager and other senior management members; (4) reviewing the structure, size, and composition of the board of directors at least annually, with a view to implementing the Company's strategies; and (5) performing such other duties as are prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, and the Articles of Association.

The principal duties of the remuneration committee shall include: (1) making recommendations to the board of directors on the remuneration policies and structure for the Directors and senior management of the Company; (2) setting up a formal and transparent procedure for determination of such remuneration policies; (3) evaluating performances and formulating the remuneration policies based on such evaluations; and (4) performing such other duties as are prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, and the Articles of Association.

The investment and strategy committee shall be primarily responsible for: (1) reviewing and making recommendations on the Company's long-term development strategies and planning; (2) reviewing and making recommendations on the Company's material investment and financing proposals; (3) reviewing and making recommendations on major market development, merger and acquisition projects; (4) reviewing the implementation of the aforementioned matters; and (5) performing such other duties as are prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, and the Articles of Association.

Article 145

The board of directors shall be accountable to the general meeting, and shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) to convene general meeting, and to report their works to the general meeting;
- (2) to implement resolutions of the general meeting;
- (3) to decide the Company's operation plans and investment plans;
- (4) to formulate the Company's annual financial budgets and final accounts;
- (5) to formulate the Company's plans for profit distribution and making up of losses;
- (6) to formulate any plan for increase or reduction in the Company's registered capital, the issue of debentures or other securities, and listing;
- (7) to formulate the Company's material acquisition, share repurchase, or merger, demerger, dissolution and change in corporate form plans;
- (8) deciding, within the authorization scope of the general meeting, proceedings such as external investment, purchase or sale of assets, pledge of asset, external guarantee, entrusting finance, connected transaction and external donation;
- (9) to decide the Company's internal management structure;
- (10) to determine the appointment or removal of the Company's general manager, board secretary, and the other senior officers and decide on their remunerations, rewards and penalties; and pursuant to the nomination of the general manager, to determine the appointment or removal of the Company's deputy general manager, person in charge of finance and other senior officers, and decide their

- remuneration, rewards and penalties;
- (11) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (12) to formulate amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (13) to manage the information disclosure of the Company;
- (14) to propose to the general meeting to employ or replace the accounting firm for the Company's audit;
- (15) to hear the work report from the Company's general manager and inspect the work of the general manager;
- (16) other authorities authorized by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Articles of Association or the general meeting.

Matters outside the scope of authorization of general meetings shall be proposed to a general meeting for discussion and approval.

Except for resolutions in respect of clauses (6), (7) and (12) above which require the agreement by voting of over two-thirds (2/3) of the directors, the others shall be subject to the agreement by voting of over half (1/2) of the directors.

Unless under the exceptional circumstances specified in Rule 13.44 to Listing Rules or by Hong Kong Stock Exchange, a director shall not vote on any resolutions of the board of directors approving any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which he or his associates (as defined in the Listing Rules) has a material interest; nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at the meeting.

If any director has connection with the enterprise involved in the resolution made at a board meeting, the said director shall not vote on the said resolution for himself or on behalf of other directors. The board meeting may be held when more than half (1/2) of the non-connected directors attend the meeting. The resolution of the board meeting shall be passed by more than half (1/2) of the non-connected directors. If the number of non-connected directors attending the meeting is less than three (3), the matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for discussion and approval.

If any substantial shareholder (as defined in the Listing Rules) or director has any conflict of interests deemed by the board of directors as material in any issue to be considered by the board of directors, the said issue shall not be passed by written resolutions or submitted to a subordinate committee (except the committee established specially for the said issue as per a resolution passed at the board meeting) for handling, and the board of directors shall hold a meeting concerning the said issue. Independent directors and their associates (as defined in the Listing Rules) without any material interest in the transaction shall attend the relevant board meeting.

Article 146 The board of directors of the Company shall explain to the general meeting the non-standardized audit opinion on the Company's financial report issued by the certified public accountant.

Article 147 The board of directors shall establish the rules of procedures of the board of directors to ensure its implementation of resolutions passed at general meetings, improve its efficiency and guarantee its scientific decision making.

The rules of procedures of the board of directors prescribe the procedures of the convention and voting of board meeting, which shall be deemed as part of or as appendix to the Articles of Association and shall be formulated by the board of directors and approved by the general meeting.

Article 148 The board of directors shall not dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company without the prior approval of a general meeting if the aggregate of the expected consideration for the proposed disposition and the consideration for any disposal of fixed assets of the Company during a period of four (4) months immediately preceding the proposed disposal, exceeds thirty-three per cent (33%) of the fixed asset value as shown in the latest balance sheet considered by the general meeting.

For the purposes of this article, the disposal of fixed assets shall include an act involving the transfer of certain interests in assets, but shall not include the provision of security against such fixed assets.

The validity of any transactions of the Company to dispose of fixed assets shall not be prejudiced by any violation of the paragraph 1 of this article.

In making decision on market development, merger and acquisition, new field of investment and so on for projects with investment amounts or asset amounts under merger and acquisition accounting for ten per cent (10%) and more to the total asset value of the Company, the board of directors shall employ society advisory body to provide professional advice which serves as important basis for its decision.

Article 149 The board of directors shall set forth the scope of authorities for external investment, purchase and sale of assets, pledge of assets, external guarantee, entrusting finance, connected transaction and external donations, and establish strict review and decision-making procedures; employ relevant experts and professionals to conduct assessment and seek for approval of general meeting for major investment.

Article 150 When the board of directors carries out its duties, it shall comply with the laws of the State, administrative regulations, Articles of Association and resolutions of general meetings.

Article 151 The chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following powers:
(1) to preside over general meetings, and to convene and chair the meetings of the board of directors;
(2) to review the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;
(3) to sign important documents of the board of directors;
(4) in any emergent force majeure event such as imperial natural disasters, exercise his special right for the business of the Company in compliance with laws and in the interests of the Company, and to report to the board of directors and the general meeting of the Company afterwards;
(5) other powers delegated by the board of directors.

Where the above matters are otherwise provided for in other laws, regulations or departmental rules, regulatory documents or the Articles of Association, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 152 The vice chairman shall assist the chairman of the board of directors. Where the chairman of the board of directors is unable or fails to fulfill his duty, the vice chairman shall be elected by more than half (1/2) of the total number of directors to fulfill the duty; where the vice chairman is unable or fails to fulfill his duty, a director shall be elected by more than half (1/2) of the total number of directors to fulfill the duty.

Article 153 The board of directors shall convene at least four (4) regular meetings per year which shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors. All directors shall be notified fourteen (14) days (exclusive of the date of meeting) in advance of the meeting.

The board of directors shall convene extraordinary meeting under the following circumstances:

- (1) proposed by shareholders representing more than ten per cent (10%) of the voting right;
- (2) jointly proposed by more than one-third (1/3) of the total members of the board of directors;
- (3) proposed by the audit committee;
- (4) necessary as defined by the chairman of the board of directors;
- (5) proposed by more than half (1/2) of the independent directors;

(6) proposed by the general manager.

The chairman of the board of directors shall convene and preside the board meeting within ten (10) days of acknowledgement of the proposal.

- Article 154 Notice of board meetings and extraordinary board meetings shall be served in the following ways:
- (1) if the board of directors has not in advance specified or changed the originally specified time and venue of regular board meeting, the chairman of the board of directors shall, at least fourteen (14) days (exclusive of the day of meeting) before the meeting, notify all the directors the time and venue of the regular board meeting by electronic communication such as email, telex, telegraph, fax, express mail, registered mail or personal delivery or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association.
 - (2) notices shall be in Chinese and, if necessary, may be attached with a copy in English, with meeting agenda attached. Any director may waive the rights for requesting to receive the notice of board meetings.
 - (3) if a director has attended the meeting, and has not raised objection of not having received the notice of meeting before or upon attending the meeting, then he shall be deemed to have received the notice of the meeting.
- Article 155 In respect of any issue to be decided by more than two-thirds (2/3) of the directors of the board of directors, a notice shall be sent to all the directors within the time specified in the Articles of Association together with sufficient information, in strict accordance with the specified procedure.
- Where more than one-fourth (1/4) of directors or more than three (3) independent directors deem the documents as inadequate or the justification as unclear, they may jointly propose to adjourn the board meeting or suspend discussing some of the topics at the board meeting, and the board of directors shall adopt such a proposal.
- Article 156 Any regular or extraordinary meetings of the board of directors may be held through telephone conference or using similar communication equipment so long as all directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other, all such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.
- Article 157 The notice of board meeting shall include the following:
- (1) date and venue;
 - (2) duration;
 - (3) reasons and topics;
 - (4) date of issue of the notice.
- Article 158 The board meeting may not be convened unless more than half (1/2) of the directors attended the meeting. The board resolution shall be passed by more than half (1/2) of the total number of directors, except for the board resolution to be passed by more than two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of directors as prescribed by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles of Association.
- The voting of the board meeting shall observe the principle of one (1) person for one (1) vote.
- Article 159 The voting means of the board of directors shall be in written form.
- Extraordinary board meeting may use telecommunication means to pass resolution which shall be signed by the attended directors provided that the directors' opinions have been fully expressed in the meeting.
- Article 160 Save otherwise specified in the Articles of Association or in the listing rules of the stock exchange with which the Company's shares are listed, the board of directors may adopt written resolution in lieu of board meeting, but the draft of the said resolution must be sent to every director by electronic communication such as email, personal delivery, post, telegraph or fax or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association. If the board of directors has sent the resolution to all directors and the number of directors signing on the resolution satisfies the quorum, and the resolution has been sent to the board secretary by the aforesaid means, the said resolution shall be deemed as the board resolution, no convention of board meeting will be necessary.

Article 161 A written resolution signed separately by all directors is as effective as a board meeting duly convened. Such written resolution may have more than one copy of each signed by one (1) or more than one (1) director. A resolution signed by a director or with his name on it issued by electronic communication such as email, telegraph, telex, mail, fax or by personal delivery or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association shall be considered as a signed document signed by him for the purpose of this article.

Article 162 Meetings of the board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If any director is unable to attend for whatever reason, he may appoint in writing other directors to attend the meeting of the board of directors on his behalf. Name of the proxy, entrusted proceedings, scope of authorization and term of validity shall be set forth in the proxy form signed or sealed by the consigner.

The director attending such a meeting on another's behalf shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of the authorisation. If a director is not present at a meeting of the board of directors, nor to appoint an alternate to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have abstained his rights to vote at that meeting.

Where the director attends the board meeting via means of phone, video conference, fax, email or mail, it shall be deemed that the director attends the meeting in person.

Article 163 The board of directors shall cause the decisions of the matters discussed at the meeting to be recorded on the minutes thereof. The directors and recorder present at the meeting shall sign the minutes.

At the board meeting, opinions expressed by independent directors shall be stated in minutes of the board meeting.

Minutes of the board meeting shall be kept as records of the Company for a period of no less than ten (10) years.

Any director shall have right to inspect the documents and information of board meetings. Where independent directors have any enquiry, the Company shall make a comprehensive reply as soon as possible. Minutes of board meeting shall upon reasonable notice by any director be available for his inspection during office hours.

The directors are liable for the resolutions passed at the meeting of the board of directors. If a resolution of the board of directors contravenes the laws, administrative regulations or this Articles of Association causing the Company to sustain substantial losses, the directors involved in passing such resolutions shall be liable to indemnify the Company provided that if a director can prove that he made an objection during the voting and the same has been entered into the minutes of the meeting, such director may be discharged from liability. A director who waives his right of voting, or who fails to attend the meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to act on his behalf shall not be exempt from liability; a director who explicitly expresses his objection in the course of discussion but fails to cast an objection vote in the voting shall not be exempt from liability.

Article 164 Minutes of the board meeting shall include the following information:
(1) date, venue and name of convener of the meeting;
(2) name of the participating directors and the representatives authorized by directors

- (proxies);
- (3) agenda of the meeting;
- (4) main points made by directors at the meeting;
- (5) voting method and voting result (the voting result shall set forth clearly the number of votes for approval, opposition or abstention) for each resolution.

Chapter 12 Secretary to the Board of Directors of the Company

Article 165 The Company shall have a board secretary. The board secretary shall be a senior managerial officer of the Company.

Article 166 The Company's board secretary shall be a natural person having professional knowledge and experience, and appointed by the board of directors. The provisions in the Articles of Association relating to person excluding for being a director shall be applicable to the board secretary. His major duties are:

- (1) to guarantee that the Company has maintained complete constitutional documents and records;
- (2) to ensure that the Company shall prepare and submit reports and documents requested by competent authorities in accordance with the laws;
- (3) to guarantee that the Company's register of shareholders has been properly maintained, and that persons who are entitled to receive the relevant records and documents of the Company receive the relevant records and documents in a timely manner;

- (5) to formulate basic rules and regulations of the Company;
- (6) to propose for the appointment or dismissal of deputy general manager and the person in charge of finance of the Company;
- (7) to appoint or dismiss principal management staff other than those to be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors;
- (8) to draw up the wages, benefits, rewards and punishments, decide upon employment and removal, promotion and demotion, increase and reduction of salary, appointment, employment, removal and dismissal of staff and workers of the Company;
- (9) to propose to convene an extraordinary board meeting;
- (10) other functions designated by the Articles of Association and the board of directors.

Article 173 The general manager may attend the meetings of the board of directors, but the general manager, not being a director, shall not have the right to vote in the meetings of the board of directors.

Article 174 In performing his functions and powers, the general manager shall not alter the resolutions of the general meeting or those of the board of directors or exceed the scope of his authority.

Article 175 General manager shall formulate terms of reference for general manager and implement after the approval of the board of directors.

Article 176 Terms of reference for general manager shall include the following:

- (1) convention condition, procedures and the participating personnel of the general manager meeting;
- (2) responsibilities and division of labour of the general manager, deputy general

- manager and other senior managerial officers;
- (3) extent of authorities and implementation rules of the utilization of the fund and asset of the Company and execution of material contract as well as the reporting system to the board of directors;
- (4) other proceedings deemed necessary by the board of directors.

Article 177 The general manager may raise resignation prior to the expiration of term. The specific procedures and measures of the resignation of general manager shall be regulated forth by the service contract between the general manager and the Company.

Article 178 Deputy general manager of the Company shall be nominated by the general manager, and the general manager may request the board of directors to appoint or dismiss deputy general managers. Deputy general manager shall assist the general manager; where the general manager cannot exercise his duties and functions, the general manager or the board of directors shall appoint one (1) deputy general manager to exercise the said powers and functions on his behalf.

Article 179 Where the general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers violate laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the relevant provisions in the Articles of Association on the occasion of performing his duty and caused losses to the Company, it shall be liable for compensation.

Senior management of the Company shall faithfully perform their duties and safeguard the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. If any senior officer of the Company causes damage to the interests of the Company and its public shareholders due to failure in faithfully performing his/her duties or violation of his/her fiduciary duties, he/she shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the laws.

Chapter 14 Qualifications and Obligations of Directors, General Managers, Deputy General Managers and Other Senior Managerial Officers of the Company

- and not to embezzle the assets of the Company in any way including but not limited to opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (8) not to receive any commission from transactions related to the Company without the informed consent of the general meeting;
 - (9) to abide by the Articles of Association, to perform his duties faithfully, to protect the interests of the Company, and not to pursue personal benefits by exploiting his position and authority in the Company;
 - (10) not to compete in any way with the Company without the informed consent of the general meeting;
 - (11) not to embezzle the funds of the Company or to lend the funds of the Company to others; not to deposit the assets of the Company in accounts opened under his own name or the name of other persons; not to use the assets of the Company as security for the liabilities of the shareholders of the Company or other personal liabilities;
 - (12) unless otherwise permitted by informed consent of the general meeting, no confidential information of the Company acquired during his term of office shall be disclosed; unless the objective is serving the interests of the Company, no such information shall be used; however, such information may be disclosed to a court of law or other governmental supervisory authorities under the following situations:
 - 1. disclosure is provided under the law;
 - 2. disclosure is required in the public interest;
 - 3. disclosure is required in the interests of such director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers.

Article 185

A director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company shall not instruct the following persons or bodies ("related persons") to do such acts which such director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers are prohibited from doing:

- (1) the spouse or minor children of a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company;
- (2) the trustee of a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company or of the persons mentioned in paragraph (1) of this article;
- (3) the partner of a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company or of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article;
- (4) companies actually and solely controlled by a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company, or companies actually and jointly controlled with the persons referred to in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this article or other directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers of the Company; and
- (5) the director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of a company being controlled as mentioned in paragraph (4) of this article.

Article 186

The fiduciary duties of a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company do not necessarily cease upon the expiry of his term of office. The obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Company confidential shall survive the expiry of his term of office. The continuance of the other obligations shall be determined on a fair basis depending on the length of the time between its occurrence and his departure from office and the circumstances and conditions under which the relation with the Company was terminated.

Article 187

Responsibilities borne by directors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers who have violated certain regulations can be released through approval by the general meeting with shareholders fully informed of the situation; but this does not include the situation stipulated in article 60 of this Articles of Association.

- Article 188 Directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers of the Company who, directly or indirectly, have a material interest in any contracts, transactions or arrangements entered into or proposed to be entered into by the Company (save for the employment contracts entered into by the Company and its directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers) shall disclose to the board of directors the nature and extent of such interest as soon as possible irrespective of whether such matters require the permission of the board of directors under normal circumstances.
- Where a director or his associate has any interest in a resolution of the board meeting, the said director shall avoid discussing and cannot participate in voting; the said director shall not be counted in the quorum of the meeting.
- Unless the interested directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers of the Company has already made disclosures to the board of directors in accordance with the requirements of the aforesaid clause of this Article and that the board of directors has approved the matter in a meeting in which they were not counted as the quorum nor attended the meeting, the Company has the right to revoke such contracts, transactions or arrangements, except that the counterparty involved, acting in good intention, was not aware of the breach of duties by such directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers.
- If the related persons of directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers of the Company are interested in any contract, transaction or arrangement, such directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers shall also deemed to have such interests.
- Article 189 In the event that a director, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior managerial officer of the Company notifies the board of directors in writing and makes a representation that on the basis of contents of the notice, he will be interested in the contract, transaction or arrangement to be entered into by the Company before the Company firstly considers the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement, the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior managerial officer shall be deemed to have made a disclosure as required in the previous paragraphs.
- Article 190 The Company shall not in any manner pay tax on behalf of any of its directors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior managerial officers.
- Article 191 No loans or guarantees for loans shall be provided, directly or indirectly, by the Company to a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company and those of its parent company, nor shall such loans or guarantee for loans be provided to the related persons of the above-mentioned persons.
- The provisions as aforesaid shall not apply to the following situations:
- (1) the Company provides loans or guarantee for loans to its subsidiaries;
 - (2) the Company provides to a director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company, pursuant to the employment contract approved in the general meeting, loans or guarantees for loans or other payments to enable them to pay the expenses incurred for the purpose of the Company or in the course of performing their duties;
 - (3) if the normal scope of business of the Company includes the provision of loans and guarantees for loans, the Company may provide loans or guarantees for loans to the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers and their related persons provided that the terms of such loans or guarantees for loans shall be on normal commercial terms.

- Article 192 If the provision of a loan made by the Company is in breach of the provisions of the preceding articles, the recipient of the sum of money shall repay the same forthwith regardless the terms of such loan.
- Article 193 The Company shall not be forced to execute loan guarantee provided in violation of paragraph 1 of article 191 except in the following circumstances:
- (1) in providing loans to the related persons of a director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers of the Company or those of its parent company, the person who has provided the loan has no knowledge of the contravention;
 - (2) the security provided by the Company has been sold legally by the person who has provided the loan to a bona fide purchaser.
- Article 194 The guarantee referred to in the preceding article shall include the assumption of obligations by the guarantor or the provision of property to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.
- Article 195 In the event that a director, general manager, deputy general manager and any other senior managerial officers of the Company shall be in breach of his obligations to the Company, the Company shall be entitled to take the following measures apart from the various rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations:
- (1) to demand the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers indemnify the losses sustained by the Company as a result of the dereliction of duties on his part;
 - (2) to revoke any contract or transaction made between the Company and the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers and a contract or transaction made between the Company and a third party (if such third party knows or should have known that the director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers representing the Company are in breach of the obligations to the Company);
 - (3) to demand the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers to return the benefit received as a result of the breach of the obligations;
 - (4) to recover from the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers the moneys including (but not limited to) commission accepted by them which should have been received by the Company;
 - (5) to demand the relevant director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior managerial officers to return the interest earned or that may be earned from the moneys which should have been payable to the Company.
- Article 196 The Company shall enter into a contract in writing with directors of the Company in respect of remuneration, the terms of which shall have obtained the prior approval at a general meeting. The terms of the remuneration matters as aforesaid shall include:
- (1) the remuneration for acting as a director or other senior managerial officer of the Company;
 - (2) the remuneration for acting as a director, supervisor or other senior managerial officer of a subsidiary of the Company;
 - (3) the remuneration for provision of other services in the management of the Company and its subsidiaries;
 - (4) the payment for compensation for loss of office or retirement of such directors.
- Except pursuant to the contract aforesaid, no legal proceedings shall be instituted by a director in respect of benefits receivable by him in respect of the aforesaid matters.
- Article 197 There shall be a provision in the contract in relation to remuneration made between the Company and a director of the Company that the director of the Company shall be entitled to the compensation or other payments as a result of loss of office or retirement when the Company is to be taken over, provided that prior approval shall have been obtained at a general meeting. A takeover of the Company referred to above shall mean one of the following situations:

- (1) a takeover offer to all shareholders has been made by any person;
- (2) a takeover offer has been made by any person to enable the offer or to become the controlling shareholder. The meaning of “controlling shareholder” is the same as that defined in article 56 of this Articles of Association.

In the event that the relevant director does not comply with the provisions of this Article, any moneys received by him shall belong to the persons who accept the said offer to sell their shares; the expenses incurred as a result of proportional distribution of such moneys shall be borne by such director and such expenses shall not be deducted from such moneys.

Chapter 15 Financial and Accounting System and Profit Distribution

Article 198 The Company shall set up the financial accounting system and internal control system of the Company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the PRC accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory authority under the State Council.

Article 199 The Company shall prepare financial reports at the end of every accounting year (commencing from 1 January to 31 December of the calendar year), to be audited and verified in accordance with the laws.

Article 200 The Company should submit and disclose, within four (4) months after the end of a financial year, to the regulatory departments under State Council Securities Committee of the State Council and the domestic and offshore Stock Exchange the Company’s annual report. The Company should submit and disclose, within two (2) months from the end of the first half of a financial year, to the local representatives of the regulatory departments under Securities Committee of State Council and the domestic and offshore Stock Exchange the Company’s interim report. The Company should submit, within one (1) month from the end of the first three (3) months and the first nine (9) months, to the local representatives of the regulatory departments under Securities Committee of State Council and the domestic and offshore Stock Exchange the Company’s quarterly financial report.

The aforesaid financial report shall be drafted in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and departmental rules.

Article 201 The financial report prepared by the Company in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents issued by local government or supervisory authorities shall be submitted by the board of directors of the Company to the shareholders at each annual general meeting.

Article 202 The Company’s financial statements shall be made available at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of every annual general meeting for shareholders’ inspection. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial statements referred to in this chapter.

The financial reports in the preceding paragraph shall include directors’ report, balance sheet (including documents to be attached in accordance with PRC laws, other laws, and administrative regulations), income statement or (under condition of not violating PRC laws) financial highlights approved by Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

The Company shall, at least twenty-one (21) days before annual general meeting, send the aforesaid reports or financial highlights to every holder of H Shares by electronic communication such as email, prepaid mail or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association at the address as shown in the register of shareholders.

Article 203 The Company's annual financial statements shall, besides being prepared under the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be also prepared under international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the overseas listing place. If there are material discrepancies between the financial statements prepared under the two accounting standards, an explanation shall be made in the financial statements. When making distributions on the after tax profits for the relevant accounting year, the lesser of the after tax profits in the above two financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 204 Interim and quarterly results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and legal regulations as well as international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place of overseas listing.

Article 205 The Company shall issue financial reports four times every financial year. The quarterly or interim financial reports should be issued within forty-five (45) days after the end of the third (3rd) month, sixth (6th) month and ninth (9th) month of each financial year, and the annual financial reports should be issued within three (3) months after the end of the financial year.

Article 206 No books of account other than those provided under the law may be established by the Company. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in the account under the names of any individuals.

Article 207 The Company's common reserve fund includes common reserve fund and capital common reserve fund. The common reserve fund is divided into statutory common reserve fund and discretionary common reserve fund.

Article 208 When distributing the after tax profits of the year, the Company shall make appropriation of ten per cent (10%) of the profits to the statutory common reserve fund. When the statutory common reserve fund has aggregated to more than fifty per cent (50%) of the Company's registered capital, it may no longer make appropriation.

If the Company's statutory common reserve fund is insufficient to make up the Company's losses in the previous years, the profits for the current year shall be used to make up the losses before appropriation to the statutory common reserve fund as required in the preceding paragraph.

After the appropriation to the statutory common reserve fund from the after tax profits, the Company may make appropriations to the discretionary common reserve fund, subject to the resolution of the general meeting.

After offsetting losses of previous financial years and extraction of statutory reserve fund, the remaining after tax profits could be distributed to shareholders according to their shareholdings.

The shares held by the Company shall not be included in the distribution of profits.

If the general meeting or the board of directors violates the requirements in the preceding paragraph, and distributes profits to shareholders prior to making up the Company's losses and appropriation to statutory common reserve fund, the profits so distributed must be returned to the Company.

Article 209 The capital common reserve fund shall include the following sums of money:
(1) premium received in excess of the par value of the shares issued;
(2) other revenue required to be transferred to capital common reserve fund by the finance regulatory authority under the State Council.

Article 210 The common reserve fund of the Company shall be used only for the following purposes:

- (1) recovery of losses of the Company, that the capital common reserve fund should not be used to make up loss;
- (2) expansion of the production and operation of the Company;
- (3) conversion into additional share capital.

Pursuant to resolutions passed at general meetings, the Company may convert the common reserve fund into share capital, and issue new shares to shareholders pro rata to their existing shareholdings or increase the par value of the shares. However, when the statutory common reserve fund is converted into share capital, the amount remaining in such common reserve fund shall not be less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 211 The board of directors of the Company shall take various factors into consideration, including its industry features, development stages, business model and profitability as well as whether it has any substantial capital expenditure arrangement, and differentiate the circumstances to propose a specific policy for distributing cash dividend according to the procedures of the Articles of Association.

The Company shall adopt a continuous and steady profit distribution policy with an emphasis on providing reasonable investment return to its investors and maintaining the sustainable development of the Company which is in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations.

In case there are distributable profits, the Company shall pay dividends once a year in principle as its profit distribution policy, and pay cash dividends as a priority. Taking into account the Company's full year operating results not yet finalized, the amount of distributable profits in accordance with the law is not certain, the Company in principle shall not pay an interim dividend. If the board of directors of the Company does not make an annual profit distribution proposal, it shall disclose the reasons thereof in its annual reports which shall contain the independent opinions of the independent directors.

No profit distribution shall be made when the audit report of the Company for the latest year is modified or unqualified with the paragraphs of material uncertainty related to going concern or when other circumstances occur in which the Company considers that profit distribution is not appropriate.

Article 212 The profit distribution policy and the profit distribution plan of the Company are formulated and considered by the board of directors. Independent directors may also collect the opinions of minority shareholders for proposing profit distribution plan, which is then directly submitted to the board of directors for consideration. Once the board of directors resolved on the profit distribution policy and the profit distribution plan, they are submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration. Independent directors shall review and provide opinions in writing on the profit distribution policy and the profit distribution plan being submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration.

Prior to the consideration by the shareholders' general meeting on the specific cash dividend distribution plan, initiatives should be taken to communicate with shareholders through various channels, especially to communicate and exchange with minority shareholders. The views and aspirations of minority shareholders shall be fully heard, with their questions concerned promptly addressed.

After the profit distribution plan has been approved by the general meetings of the Company, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within two (2) months of the general meetings.

Article 213

Dividends may be distributed in the following ways:

- (1) cash;
- (2) shares.

In case there are distributable profits, the board of directors may make a cash dividend distribution and/or stock dividend distribution proposal according to the Company's business and financial position.

The Company adopts cash dividend as its priority dividend distribution policy, i.e. the Company pays cash dividends out of the distributable profits achieved within the accounting year after appropriation to the statutory common reserve fund and retained common reserve fund in accordance with the laws. If the operating income of the Company is growing rapidly and the board of directors believes the share prices of the Company's shares do not match the scale of its share capital, the board of directors may propose to distribute dividends in shares of the Company based on the fulfillment of the above-mentioned cash dividend distribution.

The Company shall disclose in details of the formulation and performance of cash dividend policy in the annual report. In case that the Company has distributable profit in last accounting year and the board of directors of the Company does not make proposal for the annual profit distribution in cash after the end of last accounting year, the reasons concerned and the use of such undistributed profit maintained by the Company etc. shall be disclosed in the annual reports. The independent directors shall express independent opinions on such matter.

The Company's profit distribution shall not exceed the range of accumulated distributable profits. The distribution of cash dividends in one accounting year shall not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the distributable profits achieved within the year.

In the event that a shareholder misappropriated the funds of the Company, the Company shall deduct the cash dividend distributable to such shareholder for recovery of the misappropriated funds.

In the event that the Company is required to adjust the profit distribution policy based on its production and operation, investment planning, and long-term development needs, the adjusted profit distribution policy shall not violate the relevant regulations of the CSRC and the stock exchanges. A resolution regarding the adjustment of the profit distribution policy shall be proposed to the general meeting for approval upon the consideration by the board of directors of the Company. The independent directors and audit committee shall in advance express their independent views in this respect. The general meeting shall provide the shareholders with on-line vote platform. The adjustment to cash dividend policy shall be passed by more than two-thirds (2/3) of the voting rights held by the shareholders who are present at the general meeting.

The dividend of the Company carries no interest, unless the Company does not pay the relevant dividend to the shareholders on the dividend payable date. Shareholders are entitled to interest for any amount paid up in advance of calls but shall have no right to its pre-paid monies to receive the interest declared before the payable date of calls.

Where power is taken to forfeit unclaimed dividends, that power shall not be exercised until six (6) years or more after the date of declaration of the dividend.

Where power is taken to cease sending dividend warrants by post, if such warrants have been left not cashed, it will not be exercised until such warrants have been so left not cashed on two (2) consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

Unless in compliance with all the following provisions, the Company cannot exercise its power to sell the shares of a member who is untraceable:

- (1) during a period of twelve (12) years at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed;
- (2) on expiry of the twelve (12) years the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement published in the newspapers and notifies Hong Kong Stock Exchange of such intention.

Article 214 Cash dividends and other payments made to the holders of Domestic Shares shall be calculated and declared in RMB. Cash dividends and other payments made to holders of foreign shares (not listed in overseas) and holders of H Shares shall be calculated and declared in RMB and paid in foreign currency.

When the Company needs to pay foreign currencies to holders of foreign shares (not yet listed overseas) and holders of H Shares, the Company shall handle it in accordance with the relevant provisions on foreign exchange management of the State.

Unless otherwise provided by laws and administrative regulations, payment of cash dividends and other monies in foreign currencies is calculated on the average price of the conversion of RMB into foreign currencies in five (5) days as announced by the People's Bank of China five (5) working days preceding such monies are declared.

Article 215 When distributing dividends to shareholders, the Company shall by reference to the distributed amount withhold and pay on behalf of the individual shareholders the tax payable on dividend income in accordance with PRC tax law.

Article 216 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of overseas listed foreign shares. Receiving agents shall receive on behalf of the relevant shareholders dividends distributed and other monies payable by the Company in respect of overseas listed foreign shares.

The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws or the stock exchange of the place of listing. The receiving agent which the Company appoints for the holders of H Shares shall be a trust company registered in accordance with the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Chapter 16 Internal Audit

Article 217 The Company has a mechanism for internal auditing, with professional auditors to internally examine and audit the Company's financial balance and economic activities.

Article 218 The internal auditing mechanism and duties of the internal auditors should be implemented upon obtaining approval from the board of directors. The auditor in charge holds responsibility and reports to the board of directors.

Chapter 17 Appointment of Accountants Firm

Article 219 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which shall meet the relevant requirements of the State to audit the annual financial report and to review other financial reports of the Company.

The Company shall appoint an accounting firm which is qualified under the relevant provisions of the Securities Law to audit the financial reports, verify the net assets and offer other relevant consulting services, and the term of which shall be one (1) year, and may be renewed.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first annual general meeting and the accounting firm so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting fails to exercise its powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the board of directors.

Article 220 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of that annual general meeting to the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

The Company guarantees that the accounting evidence, accounting books, financial report and other accounting information provided to the accounting firm engaged are true and complete without refusal, withholding or false information.

Article 221 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) to inspect the books and accounts, records or evidence of the Company at any time and has the right to require directors, general managers and deputy general managers or other senior managerial officers of the Company to provide the relevant information and explanation;
- (2) to require the Company to adopt all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries information and explanation which are requisite for such accounting firm to carry out its duties;
- (3) to attend annual general meetings and receive notice of meeting and other information related to such meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive and speak at any meeting of shareholders about the matters related to its being the accounting firm of the Company.

Article 222 The engagement of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting, and the board of director shall not engage an accounting firm before any resolution made by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 223 Any accounting firm can be dismissed prior to the expiry of its term of office by ordinary resolution passed in a general meeting regardless of the provisions of the terms of the contract entered into by the accounting firm and the Company. If the relevant accounting firm is entitled to claim compensation against the Company due to the dismissal, such right shall not be affected.

Article 224 The remuneration or the manner to determine the remuneration of the accounting firm shall be decided at the general meeting.

Article 225 The decisions of the Company to appoint, dismiss or not to re-appoint an accounting firm shall be made at the general meeting and shall be filed with CSRC.

Where a resolution is proposed to be passed at a general meeting to appoint a firm other than an incumbent accounting firm to fill any vacant office of accounting firm, or to dismiss an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following requirements shall be met:

- (1) the relevant motion shall be sent to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or the accounting firm which intends to vacate its office or the accounting firm who has vacated from its office in the relevant accounting year, before the notice of meeting of the general meeting is issued to the shareholders. Vacating the office shall include leaving by removal, resignation or retirement.
- (2) if the accounting firm which is vacating its office makes a statement in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of that statement, the Company shall, unless the written statement is received too late, take the following measures:

1. to state in the notice given in respect of the resolution, the fact that the accounting firm which is vacating the office has made a statement;
 2. to send a copy of the statement as attachment to the notice to shareholders in the matter provided in the Articles of Association.
- (3) if the statement of the relevant accounting firm has not been sent in accordance with paragraph (2) of this article, such accounting firm may request the representation be read at the meeting of shareholders and may make further complaint.
- (4) an accounting firm which is vacating its office shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:
1. the general meeting at which its term of office will expire;
 2. the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
 3. the general meeting convened due to its resignation;

The accounting firm vacating its office shall be entitled to receive all notices or other relevant information of the said meetings, and speak at the said meetings in respect of the affairs in which it is involved as a former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 226

When the Company dismisses or does not re-appoint an accounting firm, it shall give advance notice to the accounting firm. The accounting firm shall have the right to present its views at the general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall state in the general meeting as to whether or not there are irregularities in the Company.

An accounting firm may resign by leaving a written notice of resignation at the legal address of the Company. The notice shall be effective on the date when the notice is left at the registered address of the Company or a later date specified in the notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) a declaration to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be accounted for to the shareholders or creditors of the Company;
- (2) a statement of any circumstances which should be accounted for.

Within fourteen (14) days of receiving the above-mentioned written notice, the Company shall send a copy of such notice to the relevant administrative authorities. If the notice includes statement referred to item (2) above, the Company shall keep a copy of such statement in the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of such statement by electronic communication such as email, prepaid mail or other means as permitted by regulatory rules and the Articles of Association to each shareholder who is eligible to receive the Company's financial report. The address of a recipient shall be his address recorded on the register of members. Subject to the compliance with the laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules, the above-mentioned copy of statement may be sent in the manner provided under article 268 in lieu of sending by mail as aforesaid.

When the notice of resignation of the accounting firm contains a statement that has to be accounted for, the accounting firm may request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of hearing the explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Chapter 18 Insurance

Article 227

The Company purchases various types of insurance from the designated institutions in specific way in accordance with the provisions of the relevant supervisory authorities in the PRC. The board of directors discusses and decides the insurance type, the insured amount and the period of insurance cover according to the practice of other countries of similar trades, as well as practice and laws in the PRC.

Chapter 19 Labour Management

Article 228 The Company formulates its labour and personnel system appropriate to its circumstances according to the relevant provisions of the Labour Law of the People's Republic of China.

Chapter 20 Merger and Division of the Company

Article 229 A proposal for merger or division of the Company shall be proposed by the board of directors of the Company. After the same has been passed according to the procedures provided in this Articles of Association, the relevant application procedures for approval shall be completed according to law. Shareholders who object to the proposal for merger or division of the Company shall be entitled to demand that the Company or the shareholders who consent to the proposal for merger or division of the Company purchase their shares at a fair price.

The contents of resolutions approving the merger or division of the Company shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders. Holders of H Shares shall be served copies of the above-mentioned document by mail. Subject to the compliance with the laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules, the above-mentioned copy may be sent in the manner provided under article 268 in lieu of sending by mail as aforesaid.

Article 230 The merger of the Company may take the two forms of merger by absorption and merger by formation of a new corporation.

Absorption means a company absorbs another company and the absorbed company will be dissolved. Otherwise, two or more companies will combine together for the establishment of a new company, and the original companies will be dissolved.

In the event of merger of the Company, the parties involved in the merger shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets. The Company shall notify the creditors within ten (10) days from the date of the merger resolution and shall make announcement in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within thirty (30) days thereof. The creditor may, within thirty (30) days as of his acknowledgement or within forty-five (45) days as of the date of announcement in case of not receiving notice, request the Company to settle his debt or provide relevant guarantee.

After completion of the merger, the rights and obligations of loans of the parties involved in the merger shall be assumed by the company surviving the merger or the new company formed after the merger.

Article 231 In the event of a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

In the event of a division of the Company, the parties involved shall execute a division agreement and prepare the balance sheet and list of assets. The Company shall notify the creditors within ten (10) days from the date of the division resolution and shall make an announcement in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within thirty (30) days thereof.

The liabilities of the Company prior to the division shall be undertaken by the companies after such division in accordance with the agreement entered into.

Article 232 In the event of a merger or division of the Company, alterations in the registered matters of the Company shall be registered at the company registration authorities in accordance with law; in the event of a dissolution of the Company, the cancellation of registration shall be made in accordance with law; in the event of the setting up of a new company, the registration of incorporation thereof shall be made in accordance with law.

Chapter 21 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 233 The Company shall dissolve and proceed with liquidation in accordance with law upon occurrence of any one of the following events:

- (1) the term of business provided in these Articles of Association is expired or other reasons for dissolution as specified in these Articles of Association occur;
- (2) the general meeting resolves to dissolve the Company;
- (3) dissolution of the Company is required for the merger or division of the Company;
- (4) the Company is pronounced insolvent in accordance with law as a result of its inability to pay debts when due;
- (5) the Company's business license is revoked or the Company is ordered to close down or be dissolved in accordance with the laws;
- (6) where the Company gets into serious trouble in operation and management and its continuation may cause substantial loss to shareholders' interests, and no solution can be found through any other channel, shareholders representing ten per cent (10%) or above of the total voting rights of the Company may request the People's Court to dissolve the Company.

If the Company encounters the dissolution circumstances stipulated in the preceding paragraph, it shall disclose the dissolution circumstances through the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within ten (10) days.

Article 234 In the circumstance set out in (1) of the preceding article, the Company may continue to subsist by amending the Articles of Association.

Amendment to the Articles of Association pursuant to the preceding paragraph shall be subject to approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the voting rights held by the shareholders attending the general meeting.

In the event that the Company is dissolved under the provisions of paragraphs (1), (2), (5) and (6) of the preceding article, it shall set up within fifteen (15) days a liquidation committee to commence the liquidation process. The members of liquidation committee shall be determined by way of ordinary resolution passed in general meeting. In the event that the liquidation committee has not been duly formed to conduct the liquidation process, the creditors of the Company may apply to the People's Court to order the relevant personnel to establish the liquidation committee to conduct the liquidation process.

In the event that the Company is dissolved under the provisions of paragraph (4) of the preceding article, the People's Court shall form a liquidation committee comprised of the shareholders, personnel from the relevant authorities and relevant professionals in accordance with law to proceed with the liquidation.

In the event that the Company is dissolved voluntarily, it shall be subject to approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the voting rights held by the shareholders attending the general meeting.
